Announcement Regarding Possible Irrecoverability or Delayed Collection of Claims

Mizuho Leasing Company, Limited (the “Company”) hereby announces that, with reference to its previous press release dated May 31, 2022, Announcement regarding Possible Irrecoverability or Delayed Collection of Claims, the claims on Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “Marelli”) held by Mizuho Financial Group may be delayed or become irrecoverable due to the developments described below.

1. Outline of the counterparty (Marelli)

Trade name	Marelli Holdings Co., Ltd.
Address	2-1917 Nisshin-cho, Kita-ku, Saitama-city, Saitama, Japan
Representative	David Slump, Representative Director
Line of business	Manufacturing of automotive parts
Capital stock	¥100 million
Date of foundation	October 6, 2016

2. Course of events that led to the possible non-collection or delay in the collection of claims (events that occurred to Marelli)

In the previous press release dated May 31, 2022, the Company announced that the counterparty applied for the turnaround ADR procedures on March 1, 2022 and that, at the creditors’ meeting held on May 31, 2022, the counterparty presented a business revitalization plan to creditors, which included the Company.

Subsequently, at the creditors’ meeting held on June 24, 2022 as part of the turnaround ADR procedures, some creditors did not agree to the business revitalization plan, which resulted in the termination of the procedures. In response, Marelli filed a petition with Tokyo District Court to commence civil rehabilitation proceedings. The Company assumes that Marelli will take the steps necessary for simplified rehabilitation proceedings.

3. Type and amount of claims

Loan claims totaling ¥9,698 million (4.6% of the consolidated net assets)

4. Future outlook

With regard to the above claims, we have already applied the necessary accounting treatment, and there is no revision to the consolidated financial results forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023.
